

Helping Tribal Governments Reach Payments Zen

Easy cashless payment solutions that remove the stress of reaching tribal communities

Tribal governments regularly have to deliver funds to citizens for reasons that include relief and aid, Per Capita, trusts, and women and child services. Delivering funds by check can be challenging when not all citizens have a bank account and not all citizens are easy to reach via the postal service.

dashDisbursement cards speed up the distribution of funds, streamline payment processes, and offer a fully inclusive method of getting payments to everyone, no matter their circumstances.

Speed

- Easy integration into existing systems and processes
- Real-time delivery of funds to cardholders

Convenience

- Increased operations efficiency with simplified processes, reporting, and reconciliations
- Turnkey solutions that make delivering funds easy

Security

- A safer alternative to checks—no risk of being lost in the mail
- Greater control and oversight of payments

For tribal governments, dashDisbursement is a turnkey prepaid card solution that supports flexible, streamlined payments, whatever the reason.
